

AKVIS ArtSuite 15: New Color Stripes Effect!

August 21, 2018 – AKVIS announces the release of ArtSuite 15, a photo decoration software. Version 15 introduces the new artistic Color Stripes effect that adds an edge to your photos by splitting an image into several multi-colored parts. Also, the new version offers the Notification Panel, support for more RAW files and some bug fixes.

AKVIS ArtSuite offers a rich collection of visual effects and picture frames for creative photo decoration. There are two effect groups in the program: Frames ranging from timeless wooden classics to contemporary designs; and Effects that offer a wide array of photo manipulation options. Each effect/frame is fully customizable and are extremely easy to use.

Version 15 offers the new playful and fun effect - Color Stripes. It divides an image into several areas with different color values. This effect offers a wide range of ready-to-use presets that make digital photos look fresh and fancy! The Random Shape and Random Colors buttons allow users to experiment with different parameters by a mouse click.

Also, the recent version offers the Notification Panel, provides support for more RAW files and contains some bug fixes.
