AKVIS DRAW 5.0: NOW WITH BLEND MODES AND LOCAL PROCESSING!

June 13, 2017 — AKVIS announces the release of Draw 5.0 for Windows and Mac OS X. The new version offers the blend mode options allowing you to refine the effect you want to produce by mixing the original image with the drawing effect in a variety of ways. The selection tools let you create a seamless combination of photo and drawing.

AKVIS Draw automagically converts digital images into realistic pencil drawings. The software balances an artistic approach with cutting edge features that makes it incredibly easy and entertaining to use. Equipped with dozens of presets and adjustable parameters, the program renders various drawing styles: both b&w and color.

The digital transformation happens extremely quickly, giving you more time to focus on the creative process. Additionally, the program supports the batch processing feature that lets you turn all your photos into a sketchbook or a storyboard within just minutes. Version 5.0 maximizes the versatility of the program by adding a variety of blend modes that allow to achieve dramatically different results with a simple mouse click. Also, the new version provides tools for defining the effect area and the updated list of ready-to-use presets. Be as creative as you want to be!

In Version 5.0:

- Blend Modes
The new version gives you extra room for creativity with the ability to control how the original image interacts with the drawing effect.
- Local Processing
The new version provides selection tools which help to define the effect area (Effect Area/No Effect Area pencils).
- New AKVIS Presets
Additional well-configured presets created using the new features will help you to edit photos in record time and avoid repetitive energy sapping tasks.
- Fixed Minor Bugs
