

AKVIS NATUREART 8.0: AURORA BOREALIS EFFECT! ADD NORTHERN LIGHTS TO PHOTOS

November 23, 2015 — AKVIS announces the release of AKVIS NatureArt v.8.0, software for Windows and Mac, a collection of splendid nature effects for images. Version 8.0 adds the new Aurora effect.

AKVIS NatureArt lets imitating the magnificence of natural phenomena on photos.

Nature effects have an impact on a person's mood and strengthen the impression from a picture. Give a dull and lifeless photo an entirely new look by changing the weather on it. The spirit of the scene will change dramatically.

Add the sun, lightning strikes, rain or snow, a rainbow or a flame to a picture; play with seasons changing, create a seascape image, a night sky view, or picturesque foggy scenery. The software lets anyone feel like a wizard who can manipulate natural forces!

The new version includes the most impressive effect which creates the eye-catching Aurora Borealis dancing on images. This new feature is absolutely necessary at the festive season and will help you to prepare a Christmas set of creative works.

In Version 8.0:

- NEW Aurora Borealis Effect!

Version 8.0 offers the Aurora effect with its special tools and ready-to-use presets.

Aurora borealis is an exciting natural phenomenon, a gorgeous atmospheric luminescence. In ancient times such flashes of cold fire were considered as messages of gods, their fiery dance in the northern sky. We always enjoy these spectacular shining views, continuously and rapidly changing, with their rich color spectrum.

With NatureArt v.8.0 you can now add magnificent northern lights to your images!

Now the software includes 10 basic effects: Rain, Sun, Water, Lightning, Clouds, Frost, Rainbow, Aurora, Fire, and Ice; each with a number of presets for creating a wide variety of natural phenomena. You can make snow from rain, moon from the sun... Whatever your imagination desires!

- New dark interface style (you can switch in the Preferences).
- Support for more RAW files.
- Some bugs have been fixed.
